Dear Anna,

I'll enclose a copy of the report that I sent Page Miller on our recent meetings with the statutory consultants about the Agency's new Historical Review Program. The meetings were extraordinarily helpful, and we expect to get the consultants' formal report in a few days.

I gather that the Report of the Committee on the Records of Government is about to be released. I would be grateful if you would send me not only a copy for myself, but also an additional five copies that I can deliver to the other key people here who should have it.

I should add my tardy thanks for the very pleasant luncheon in January, and I would like to reciprocate soon.

Sincerely,

J. Kenneth McDonald
Chief Historian
